

Nathan H. White, Ph.D. serves as Associate Chief/Dean of the Graduate School for Army Chaplain Corps Professional Development (GSACCPD).

Dr. White holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Christian Education from Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois, a Master of Divinity degree from Beeson Divinity School at Samford

University, Birmingham, Alabama, and a Doctor of Philosophy degree in Practical Theology from the University of Durham, Durham, United Kingdom, where his dissertation focused on theological, philosophical, and social scientific accounts of human resilience to adversity.

Dr. White has served in a variety of positions within academic, not-for-profit, ministry, and military contexts. He is the founding Executive Director of a non-profit research organization, an ordained minister, and has taught in universities on both sides of the Atlantic. His work has been published by Oxford University Press, NDU Press, and Routledge, among others, and he has been featured in venues as diverse as Psychology Today and the US Army Chaplain Corps Journal. He has presented at conferences in the US, Italy, Germany, and the UK, focusing on the application of integrated knowledge in domains such as trauma recovery, disaster relief, and human resilience.

Dr. White has held a number of positions within the US Army, both Active Duty and Reserve Component. His most recent positions include: Strategic Action Officer, Office of the Chief of Chaplains, Washington, DC; Commander, 89th Chaplain Detachment, Kaiserslautern, Germany; and Brigade and Battalion Chaplain, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault), Fort Campbell, KY. His deployments include in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom (2009-2010) and Operation Enduring Freedom (2012-2013).

Dr. White is a graduate of the Chaplain Officer Basic Course, the Chaplain Captain Career Course, and the Command and General Staff College where he received an 'Iron Pen' award. His military awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, Purple Heart, Meritorious Service Medal with one oak leaf cluster, and numerous other awards and commendations.