

CH (COL) Ibraheem Raheem, DMin, MBA, ACPE-CE, BCC
Director, School for Spiritual Care and CPE

Chaplain (COL) Ibraheem Raheem enlisted in the US Army in Kansas City, Kansas and completed Basic Training at Ft. Bliss TX and then completed Combat Medical Specialist Course at Ft. Sam Houston TX. He later completed the Practical Nurse Course at Ft. Gordon GA. His spiritual journey began while working in the ICU at LPMC Landstuhl, Germany while witnessing miraculous recoveries. He later served as Lay Leader in both Germany and Fort Bragg NC. Where eventually he answered his calling to military ministry serving Soldiers and Families as a US Army Chaplain and was commissioned into the Chaplain Candidate Program.

His enlisted assignments, service as a Combat Medic at 44th Med BDE Fort Bragg NC, Licensed Practical Nurse at Womack Army Community Hospital and Landstuhl Regional Medical Center, and 82nd Airborne Division Forward Surgical Team Wardmaster. As an Officer, he served as Battalion Chaplain on multiple assignments including 82nd Airborne, 1st Armored Divisions. He then served as Installation Resource Manager IMCOM Ft Jackson SC, Brigade Chaplain 1st ID Assist and Advise Brigade Iraq, Brigade Chaplain 8th MP Brigade Schofield Barracks Hawaii, AMEDD Deputy Command Chaplain JBSA San Antonio TX, WRNMMC CPE Site Director Bethesda MD, and presently serves as Program Director of the School for Spiritual Care and CPE at the USA-IRL Graduate School Fort Jackson, SC.

His civilian education includes a Doctor of Ministry degree from Erskine Theological Seminary, a MS in Religious Practice from Cordoba University, an MBA in Public Management from TUI, a BS Degree in Health Science from Campbell University and AA degree from the University of Maryland. He is also a ACPE Certified Educator and Board-certified Chaplain. He completed Arabic studies at The University of Jordan.

His military education includes PLDC, BNCOC, CHOBC, Chaplain Career Course, CGSC, IRS LC.

His deployments include Germany, Korea, Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Qatar, Iraq (2), Afghanistan, Djibouti, Bosnia, Bangladesh, Cuba, and Hawaii.

He is married to Debra Thompkins of Brooklyn, NY. They have four children Ayisha, Amina, Ishmael, and Inayah and two grandchildren Nasir and Lyric.